Subject: asking for a raise in salary

Dear darshan,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally request a review of my current salary. Over the past six months, I have taken on additional responsibilities and have made significant contributions to our team and the company as a whole.

Some of my key achievements include:

"Successfully led the project that resulted in a 20% increase in efficiency."
"Implemented a new system that reduced costs by 15%."

In light of these contributions and my commitment to the success of our team, I believe it is appropriate to discuss a salary adjustment that reflects my current role and responsibilities. I have also researched industry standards and found that my current compensation is below the average for similar positions in our field.

I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss this matter further and explore the possibility of a salary increase. Please let me know a convenient time for you to meet.

Thank you for considering my request. I look forward to our conversation.

Best regards,

Garaniya Chintan

Subject: Apology

Dear darshan sir,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to sincerely apologize for "my behavior during our last meeting," "missing the deadline," "the misunderstanding regarding our project," etc.

I understand that my actions may have caused "inconvenience," etc, and I take full responsibility for that. It was never my intention to , "create any discomfort," "let you down," etc, and I regret any negative impact it may have had.

I value our collaboration, etc. and I am committed to making things right. If applicable, mention any steps you are taking to rectify the situation or prevent it from happening again.

Thank you for your understanding and patience. I appreciate the opportunity to address this matter, and I hope we can move forward positively.

Best regards,

Garaniya Chintan
